Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards.

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today's Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master's affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God's. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God's behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility. The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality.

PEOPLE ARE HURTING

The cost of living is rising, and so are housing rentals. People are hungry and must choose between paying bills and eating. As a result, Community Care has growing numbers needing assistance for food. In September, through your caring generosity, St. Julia St Vincent de Paul was able to donate $3500 to Community Care for food for the hungry. In our own area, you currently sponsor 24 families with food vouchers through S.V.D.P. with your ongoing donations. We sincerely thank you for your ongoing effort to help those less fortunate.

We welcome new members and new ideas to further our mission to serve the needy. We invite you to join us at our next meeting on Wednesday, October 12 at 10:00 a.m. in the Serenity Room. This might be a rewarding result for both you and S.V.D.P. of St. Julia Church.
