Thirty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

It is easy to view each other with suspicion or at least a certain guardedness in the modern world. Of course, it's wise to be prudent in our dealings with people. But stewardship calls us to a different outlook towards others. It calls us to approach everyone with an open heart — not through a lens of suspicion, but through the lens of loving hospitality.

This is the attitude of our heavenly Father when He looks upon creation, as we see in our first reading from the Book of Wisdom: "For you love all things that are and loathe nothing that you have made; for you would not fashion what you hate." God's imperishable spirit is in every person because every person is made in God's own image and likeness. Far deeper than good manners or a superficial exchange of pleasantries, the virtue of hospitality is the outward expression of this way of seeing people as God sees them.

Our Gospel reading from Luke tells the story of how Jesus models this transforming hospitality in His encounter with the tax collector, Zacchaeus. He was not content exchanging a friendly hello with Zacchaeus, so Jesus sought him out of the crowd and insisted on having dinner in his home. This gesture of intimacy and true fellowship was commonplace in that day and culture. Jesus saw the goodness within the man. Our Lord's open and welcoming attitude (His hospitality) called forth this goodness, and as a result, Zacchaeus transformed.

If we are willing to practice Christian hospitality in our daily lives, our families, workplaces, and parish also can be transformed.

The Month of November - Praying for All Souls

Praying for the souls that have departed this world is an important part of our Catholic faith. If you would like your loved one remembered in our prayers of the faithful at Mass on this day and for the entire month of November, we invite you to pick up an envelope at the doors of the church marked "All Souls Day Remembrance". These names / the envelopes containing the names will be placed in a basket in front of the ambo. Rather than praying for one intention (loved one) at each Mass, we will pray for the souls of all these loved ones and friends who have gone before us.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in the peace of Christ, Amen.*

THEY HAVE GONE NO FURTHER FROM US THAN TO GOD, AND GOD IS VERY NEAR

FLYING FATHERS TO LAND IN NIAGARA NOVEMBER 21 AND 22

The Flying Fathers, known for many years as the Harlem Globetrotters of Hockey, raising millions of dollars for various charities while keeping fans laughing with as many outrageous stunts as they could get away with on the ice will be in Niagara for two games in November. Three local priests Father Paul MacNeil (the Holy Goalie) Father Daniel Corso and Father Ronald Langervil will be playing in both games. The Niagara Foundation for Catholic Education, Council 1652 Knights of Columbus, and the Thorold Mounts are partnering for the two game charity event with proceeds to benefit students in need who attend Niagara Catholic District Schools and other local charities. On Monday, November 21, at the Gale in Niagara Falls the Flying Fathers will face off against a team that will include Niagara Catholic District School Board student all-stars, teachers and other staff members. On Tuesday, November 22 they will skate against the Thorold Mounts Oldtimers at the Jack Doherty arena in Thorold. Ticket prices are $10.00 each and both games start at 7:15 pm. The games will feature enjoyable hockey and all the traditional Flying Fathers antics such as pies in the face, Sister Mary Shooter, the hockey playing nun, Smitty the Clown, the Flying Monk and much more in slapstick surprises.
